A student with three examinations on one day may see their instructor on or before Monday, May 3, 2010, to request moving an examination to another day.

No changes are to be made in the test schedule without prior approval. Laboratory tests should be scheduled during laboratory periods unless they are incorporated with the lecture examinations.

Final examinations will be administered to all students. However, grades will not be released to students who have not taken care of financial accounts such as those at the PRCC bookstore, traffic fines, or the Business Office. Also, students are required to return library books and pay library fines by Thursday, May 6, 2010.
